

I feel that it would be beneficial for those operators which hold a Novice or Advanced Amateur Radio License to be "promoted" to the next higher license class if they have been in Amateur Radio for over twenty years. Most of these licensees have encouraged others to join the ranks as Amateur Radio operators and have been a great benefit to the Amateur Radio community in general.